

Week of May 13, 2012

Prayer Theme of the Week: Honoring Our Mothers

God, please:

Reveal to me Your great wisdom in creating mothers.

Remind me that being a mother is a voluntary endeavor of love.

Strengthen my commitment to cherish the role of mother and those who have chosen that role.

Encourage me to be deeply and daily thankful for the mother(s) in my life.

Help me to recognize that, as with all good things, You are the Source of a mother's love.

Increase my understanding of how a mother's love can reflect the Savior's love.

Make me a person whose life brings joy to my mother(s) and glory to my God.

Show me how to honor all the women in my life who have mothered me, so that I may also honor You.

Hold me accountable for how I, as an individual, and we, as a community, treat and care for our mothers.

Do not let me forget that Your Son set the example for how a child should honor his mother.
